

EVERYONE IS WELCOME AT WIC.

No matter your family's shape or story—if you are pregnant, breastfeeding, or caring for a child under 5, you can get support from WIC!

- Moms
- Dads
- Grandparents
- Foster parents or guardians
- Stepparents
- Immigrant families
- Military families
- Indigenous families
- And more!

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE PROGRAM?

We're here for more families than you may think: WIC supports over half of all infants in the U.S.! This can include but is not limited to:

- People who are currently pregnant, pregnant in the last 6 months, or breastfeeding a baby up to 12 months old
- Families with infants or young children who are receiving other benefits like SNAP or Medicaid
- Infants or children under 5 in foster families (regardless of income)
- Infants or children under 5 that have special nutritional needs or nutrient deficiencies

"It's a big help and very beneficial, not just the food and resources they give me, but also the nutritional guidance I get to keep helping my little girl grow."

— WIC Participant

"So, [my baby] wouldn't latch, and that was really hard for me because I had no experience breastfeeding. I didn't know what to do. That's why I'm so grateful to [breastfeeding counselor] for everything she did for me."

— WIC Participant

BREASTFEEDING SUPPORT

No matter where you call home, breastfeeding and chestfeeding parents have the right to respectful lactation support. WIC is here for you by offering guidance, resources, and tools to meet your personal goals and needs. This can include:

- International Board Certified Lactation Consultants (IBCLCs)
- Breastfeeding peer counselors
- Breastpumps and other breastfeeding supplies
- Personalized support and tips for breastfeeding
- Information about your protected rights for breastfeeding and pumping in public or at work
- Additional food and nutrition benefits for parents who are breastfeeding (including pumping) or combo feeding (breastmilk and infant formula)

DID YOU KNOW?

Families who are enrolled in Medicaid and SNAP can be eligible for WIC benefits, too!

FROM NUTRITIOUS FOODS TO BREASTFEEDING SUPPORT AND REFERRALS— WIC HAS YOUR BACK.

We're dedicated to helping families live healthier lives.
